

Note: Hunt boundary shown is an approximation. Hunters are responsible for knowing the exact boundary locations as described within Section 364, Title 14, Calif. Code of Regs.

The map displays the Fort Hunter Liggett Tule Elk Hunt Zone, a large green-shaded area with a dotted pattern. The zone is labeled "FORT HUNTER LIGGETT" and "Tule Elk HUNT ZONE". Surrounding the zone are various roads and landmarks. To the north, roads include Forest Route 12S02, Pine Canyon Road, County Highway G14, Oasis Road, Main St., Cattleman Road, Paris Valley Road, Lookwood San Lucas Road, Lockwood San Ardo Road, Jolon Rd., and Interlake Rd. To the east, the San Antonio Reservoir and Nacimiento Reservoir are shown. To the south, the Pacific Ocean is visible, along with Point Sur, Big Sur Historic State Park, Pfeiffer Big Sur State Park, and Julia Pfeiffer Burns State Park. The map also shows the boundary between Monterey and San Luis Obispo counties. A scale bar at the bottom left indicates distances from 0 to 5 miles.

Tule Elk
Hunt Zone

-  National Forest
-  US Bureau of Land Management
-  CA Dept. of Fish and Game
-  Hunt Zone *
-  County Boundary
-  Water Body
-  US Interstate
-  US Highway
-  Main Road
-  US Interstate
-  US Highway
-  CA Highway
-  Private Holding
(not open)

* Hunting is only allowed on portions of Fort Hunter Liggett Military Base. Access to some areas will be restricted as discussed at the mandatory hunt orientation.

